Good Friday

Pastor Justin

Like we have for the past few years, we are getting together with a few other congregations to remember Jesus' sacrifice for our sins on Good Friday, April 19. Pastors Danielson and Christensen, from East Lincoln Alliance and Amery Free Lutheran, and I have been preparing for this night. We want to somberly remember the crucifixion of Christ and what it means for us as believers.

This year, we are calling the service, "Shadows of the Cross." During the service, we are going to look at some Old Testament stories that foreshadow Jesus' work on the cross. We are going to examine the sacrifice God made in the Garden of Eden for the sin of Adam and Eve. The way the Ark provided deliverance for Noah and his family. Remember the story of Abraham and Isaac when God provides the ram? Yep, we are going to cover that one too. Another one will be the story of the first Passover and followed by the bronze serpent in the wilderness. Finally, we are going to look at Yom Kippur (the day of atonement) and the cross of Jesus.

If you have never heard these stories, or if you have never heard these stories through the lens of Calvary, I'm sure you will find the service enlightening, thought provoking, and encouraging. There is a story in Luke 24, where Jesus appears after his crucifixion and resurrection to a few of his disciples. The scripture tells us that their eyes were prevented from recognizing Him. After they inform Jesus of the events of His crucifixion and reports of His resurrection. (Obviously, Jesus knew what had just happened... he knew it better than these two disciples.)

But afterward, Luke records the most interesting verse. Luke 24:27 "Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, He explained to them the things concerning Himself in all the Scriptures."

Wouldn't you have loved to be a fly buzzing around them listening to Jesus expound of how all these old Scriptures point to the Cross. There are so many scriptures that point to Jesus and his suffering and glorification. Often, we overlook these stories or never notice how they point to the Cross. It must have been an amazing retelling of the stories the disciples already knew, for they said in verse 32,

Mission update—From Tim Sackett of Transport for Christ in Hudson, WI

Dear congregation,

Transport For Christ (TFC) is an international ministry with 42 locations in 7 countries around the world.

For 27 years there was a truckers’ chapel located at the truck stop at exit 4 in Hudson. In recent years, the activity on the chapel declined. With many efforts by our local church communities, we made the effort to keep the chapel open. On March 11th, the Board of Directors for TFC made the decision to close the Hudson location. The last day of service in the chapel will be Sunday, April 14th.

Tim Sackett and all the other chaplains are very, very thankful for the relationships made in the Hudson area for these 27 years. Although Tim was offered an opportunity to transfer to another chapel in the U.S., he has decided to stay in Hudson. In the time they’ve served, Tim reports that 42 chaplains, both staff and volunteers, were trained to serve the truckers, the truck stop, the homeless, and the St. Croix valley.

More than 200 people made their decision to trust and follow Jesus as their Lord. 15 people were baptized, dozens more rededicated their life to Jesus, and 1000’s were ministered to by word and deed. Hundreds of generous, faithful donors kept us going all the time. Thank you for giving, praying, and partnering with us.

THANK YOU, ST. CROIX VALLEY! Chaplain Tim Sackett

He alone is my Rock and my Salvation; He is my fortress, I will never be shaken.”

Church Signs—a part of our culture.
By Stan Miller

The sign at the Seventh Day Adventist Church in Rice Lake, WI caught the eye of this teacher. It read: “God Grades on the Cross, Not on the Curve.”

Curve buster’s are not held in high esteem by most of their peers. This is a natural emotion of humans. There are several reasons why this occurs. For some it’s jealousy, for others it’s envy, and for others it’s seen as a gift from the teacher. Earning the grade doesn’t fit into the goals of some, nor the understanding of others. If God graded on the curve, not one of us would garner a satisfactory grade. If God graded on the curve, each of us would have to find something in our effort to brag about. In God’s grading scale, there are no valedictorians by their own effort!

And that’s why Paul could write, “We are saved by grace, it is a gift from God, not of works, lest any man could boast.” Thanks be to Jesus!

burn, WI. He is a carpenter. His role and title will be Director of Building Maintenance”.

Our camp serves 600 children per summer. It also hosts week-end retreats year round and serves another 1700 people.

The Welke’s both attended ABC as youth. Naomi was a nanny for the camp director’s children. They are now foster parents to babies and need to find permanent homes for these babies.

Naomi needs to find a job. They need to sell a home and find another to buy. Jon is in need of financial support. Please pray for these concerns and give as you are led.

Duane Dietz: Duane is a missionary with Reach Global from the EFCA in Japan. Every five years he is required to take a furlough. He will be in the U.S. from June to December, 2019, visiting supporting churches. He will probably not retire for two more years.

Rob Weise: Rob does church ministry and youth events for the Forest Lake District of the EFCA. This winter he had the flu and dental infections. His wife, Nancy, had Lyme’s disease and the flu. They had to replace a van also. They are now on a three month sabbatical to recuperate.

Sunday, April 14th, Kaylee Tracy will share her mission ministry of working with refugees in Berlin, Germany through the EFCA Reach Global. Join us in Sunday School and church to hear about her journey to come.

Sunday, May 5th, Tony and Gresilda Llapushi and family will share their mission with TMS Global. They will be involved in Church planting in the Balkans. They will share in Sunday School and a short time in Church

The quantities we lack.
We tend to dwell on negatives
Reliving our own pasts.
On our sins accumulated
The shameful things we’ve done
When we only need remember
The distance we have come.
Through Jesus we’re forgiven
When repentant of our deeds
And they’re forgotten by our Father
Who cares for all our needs.
When doubt assails our senses
And Satan does attack
We must imitate our savior
Never to look back
We’re no longer that creation
With no remedy for sin.
We’re strong in word and faith
And the devil cannot win
Not my will but thine be done
The savior taught us all
And when we take those words to heart
We can overcome a fall.
So forward! Ever Forward!
With joy in every step
Imitating Jesus
Who paid our every debt.

If you have a prayer concern, contact Bev Richmond (715-268-4226) or Lynne Peterson at (lybrpeterson@yahoo.com).

Hospital Calls: If someone is hospitalized, please contact Pastor Justin and/or Pastor Bruce.

The deaconesses also need to know so they can visit, send cards, etc. Our deaconesses are Judy Nelson, Linda Wetzig and Carol Smith.

Keep our nation, church, youth, teachers, schools and the sick and hurting in your prayers!

NURSERY HELP NEEDED

Contact Deb Brown if you can work a Sunday or two each month.

We need two at a time each week. Eight volunteers on a rotation schedule would mean once per month in the nursery. A teen with an adult is a realistic option.

This is a valuable service to Sunday morning

Please come and help the Golden Age Manor residents celebrate their birthdays.
