Church Growth

Pastor Justin

Have you ever noticed how different churches are from one another? I have a second cousin who preaches at a church with over 6,000 members. His church has 6 different campus sites and he preaches 8 different times on a Sunday morning. Between services, he has a car and driver waiting for him to drive from one site to the next.

A friend of mine pastors a small church in Minnesota. They meet in an old insurance building with about 50 people each Sunday. In this low-ceiling office, they lay out metal folding chairs and squeeze a piano in the corner. They sing and study the word of God together. It is common for them to share prayer requests and update one another during the service.

Still, a vast majority of churches in America are about the size of our church. 100-150 people gather each Sunday in a building that is comfortable to meet in. These churches have a blend of paid staff and volunteers that proclaim the Gospel.

After watching a recording of a small church's Sunday gathering, I was hit with the question, "Which method of worship is what God wants?"

My mind drifted to the early church that met in the homes of believers. They would come together and share all they had in common with one another. They would eat a meal together and disperse money to those who were in need. As I picture these gatherings, they would have me think that the small church is the best option.

But as I thought, I began to realize that in the beginning of Acts, God added 3,000 to their number in one day. And right after that it says that God added to their number daily those who were being saved. (Acts 2) In a city where some 600,000 people lived, it is easy to see why the early church started meeting on the temple courts (Acts 2:46) because it was the only place big enough for them to all gather. Could you imagine what that would have been like? Even today, large churches don't have that many people gathering at one place at one time. It seems that the church that met in the temple would have been quite large.

I think the struggle for large, medium, and small churches is the same – that is we get comfortable with the status quo. We might be in the church of 6,000 and feel like we don't want to see it grow because then we have to figure out new space and how to fit more services in. In the small church, we become comfortable with our close friends and have difficulty making room for new people. The same thing can be in our medium sized church as well. Growth makes us uncomfortable.

If a church is to grow it has to give up being comfortable. The church has to believe what it says about the Good News being for ALL people. If we believe it is for everyone, then we should be able to make room for everyone. And, according to Acts 2, we would expect the Lord to add to our numbers daily. Though we might verbally confess to believing the Gospel is for all people, our actions speak the words, "I like it like it is now," or "I'm comfortable and don't want to change."

Let's be sure we are open to the people God brings into our fellowship. We should go out of our way to develop friendships and encourage those who choose to make this their church home. Yes, it is impossible to know everyone; however, we can always foster encouragement, joy, mutual love and respect with everyone we come into contact with within the church. God has called us His children, we can love those whom God has chosen.

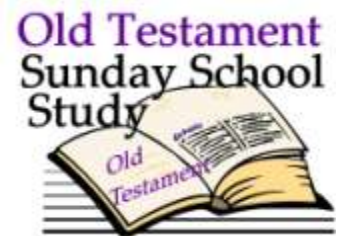

New Adult Sunday School class, beginning March 21
"Story Thru the Old Testament", taught by Rod Wetzig

Most of us know the major Old Testament stories: "David and Goliath", "Daniel in the lions' den", "Creation", "the Flood", etc. However, would you be able to place them in chronological order? Would you know why God chose to put them in the Bible? Would you be able to see practical lessons from each of the stories?

Beginning, March 21, the Auditorium Sunday School class will begin a study of 26 important Old Testament stories, in chronological order, and learn how to get the major facts in our minds, how to tell them to others, how to apply them, etc.

Much of the world learns through "story-telling". God knew this, and we should learn how to pass His Word on to those around us.

All are invited.

March Mission of the Month — Duane Dietz

Duane, a single man, grew up in Wisconsin. He serves with the Evangelical Free Church mission in Tokyo, Japan. He has been a career missionary for over 30 years.

Tokyo Multicultural Church ministers to people of many nationalities. The Prinses and Littles also work there with Duane. They hold services in English and Japanese.

Covid restrictions impacted their church and they have had on-line services. The Olympics will be held in Tokyo this summer and they are hoping to have a ministry to tourists from other countries. Due to ancestry worship, the work goes slow and few commitments to Christ are made.

A Grand Entrance

Decades ago, as English actress Gertrude Lawrence waited behind the curtain for a play to begin, the queen upstaged her by arriving at the royal box to much applause. "What an entrance," Lawrence remarked, to which her friend, playwright Noel Coward, replied, "What a part!"

Jesus certainly made a grand entrance into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, entering to adoring shouts of "Hosanna!" But worldly glory and fame weren't his intent. Instead, our Lord knew that his Father had prepared a sacrificial role for him. Jesus handled the adulation with dignity and poise. The humble yet courageous Son of God knew that danger, despair and death awaited — but that he must endure it all to fulfill prophecy for humanity's sake.

The pageantry of Palm Sunday is a stark contrast to the role of Suffering Servant that Jesus faced a few short days later. Yet each event during Holy Week represents victory — for Jesus as well as for his beloved children. Palm Sunday is a glorious day, so let us wave palms and shout, "Hosanna in the highest heaven!" The Savior has come. What an entrance! What a part!

Executive Board Meetings

Those committees/boards that would come to the monthly Executive Board Meetings if the revised Constitution passes, are welcome to come now. Get a taste of meeting together. The monthly Executive Board Meeting meets on the second Tuesday of every month at 7:00p.

When God Giggles

Before dinner, our family was preparing to pray, which we do by holding hands. Upon discovering that one child hadn't washed his hands, my husband struck a contorted pose to avoid physical contact. The mealtime blessing quickly dissolved into laughter as we each peeked at him.

Afterward, as we passed around the food, I asked, "What do you imagine God thought about us laughing during prayer?" One child quickly replied, "I think he was laughing right along with us." Yes! Although prayer is reverent, God invites us to converse with words, emotions — and even giggles!
